VOIT REAL ESTATE SERVICES WELCOMES BACK STEFAN ROGERS TO ITS IRVINE OFFICE

Irvine, Calif., (May 19, 2016) – Voit Real Estate Services is pleased to announce the return of Stefan Rogers as Senior Vice President to the Irvine office. Rogers, a fifteen-year international commercial real estate veteran, has rejoined Voit as a shareholder in the firm, and will continue his focus on corporate real estate services and investments.

“Voit is a progressive, collaborative, environment with a unique culture unmatched anywhere else in this industry,” according to Stefan. “There are no layers of bureaucracy, unlike at the larger firms, enabling quick decisions and the delivery of rapid, customized solutions for every client. These characteristics coupled with the recent restructure to a broker owned organization, compelled me to make the move back to a brokerage firm I previously called home for many years.”

Voit’s CEO, Eric Hinkelman is also thrilled to welcome Stefan back. “We are so pleased to have Stefan on our team once again. He has the reputation for professionalism and integrity that mirrors the priorities of the company. His energy, sense of humor, and experience make Voit an even better place for all of us.”

Stefan began his real estate career in his teens, at his father’s property consulting firm. After earning an honors degree in Real Estate Management from Oxford University, England, he joined Cushman & Wakefield in London in 1999, working in asset and property management, development, agency, appraisal and investment sales, handling assignments for clients including BP, Disney, McDonald’s, Tesco, Tetra Pak, H&M, 3M, The Daily Mail, Prudential, and Virgin Atlantic. In 2001, Stefan was awarded the global professional designation of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS), the world’s most respected global ‘Standards and Membership’ organization for real estate professionals.

“My multi-disciplinary education and experience, and my RICS designation, is something I bring to every relationship and assignment. It’s a great differentiator and has steered me towards a more analytical and consultative approach, which has served me well in terms of repeat business and relationship-building.”

In 2003, Stefan was recruited by Voit and relocated from London to Orange County, California to continue his real estate career. "It was an exciting time back then, and I'm feeling the same level of enthusiasm in my return to Voit. I am honored to be welcomed back amongst such special people, at such a promising time for the company."
