CAREER SUMMARY

While attending Arizona State University, Mr. Geiger began his Associate training at Voit Real Estate Services' Phoenix Office under Senior Vice President Darren Tappen, specializing in the acquisition, disposition and development of industrial, office and retail properties. He was also educated and exposed to the distressed asset area, primarily serving large banks, insurance companies, institutional investors and special servicers including LNR Partners, GE Capital, and Genworth Financial. Most notably, Adam was the youngest commercial real estate broker to close a deal in the greater Phoenix market in 2014 and was recognized by Commercial Executive Magazine for his efforts.

After graduating from ASU and returning to Southern California in August of 2015, Adam joined Greenlaw Partners in Orange County, a full-service real estate operating and development company where he focused on land acquisition and entitlement, sourcing numerous successful joint venture partnerships and land projects. Adam joined Voit Real Estate Services' Ontario office in June of 2016, partnering with market leaders Frank Geraci and Juan Gutierrez, to focus on serving occupiers and owners throughout the region.
