CAREER SUMMARY

Sean is a broker in the Voit Inland Empire office in Ontario who specializes in sales and leasing of industrial properties. Sean's key role on his team and in the Inland Empire office is to provide business development opportunities and transaction management. He also assists clients with the leasing and selling of industrial buildings within the Southern California markets. As an aggressive prospector, his knowledge of the Inland Empire market comes from tangible interaction with properties, landlords and tenants. Sean's dedication to hard work, attention to detail, and relational skills allows him to perform above and beyond client's needs.

Prior to joining Voit's Inland Empire office, Sean worked as a Marriage and Family Therapist in Orange County for three years upon completing an MFA in psychology.
